What is Community Transition Services?

- Community transition services may be available to residents who are eligible for Medicaid and desire to live in the community.
- Community Transition residents may request transition services for themselves or referrals may be made by a concerned family member, friend, or nursing facility staff.
- Once a referral has been made, an initial interview will be conducted to obtain information necessary to assist with long-term care goals.
- If a person does not meet the eligibility guidelines, efforts will be made to identify other community resources to help the individual.
- Individuals may stop the transition process at any time without penalty.

The Community Transition Services offers information and assistance on:

- Transition Options
- Eligibility Guidelines
- Community Resources
- In-Home Support Services
- Housing Accessibility
- Person-Centered Plan Development

MI Choice Waiver's goal is to provide individuals, regardless of disability or age, the opportunity to choose community-based living as a viable alternative to nursing facility residency. Transition services may be available to residents who are eligible for Medicaid and wish to:

- return to their own home
- move in with a family member
- find an apartment
- choose another community-based living option.

Support services required after an individual moves out of the nursing facility may be available to those who meet functional and financial guidelines.
